

Request For Proposals – Snow Farm: The New England Craft Program’s Art Retreat for Educators

June 26-30, 2020: Snow Farm will host our 3rd annual Art Retreat for Educators. We are seeking proposals from art educators for two presentations to take place on Saturday evening, June 27th between 7:30-9:00pm. We are looking for presentations on innovative school- or community-based projects or curriculum. Proposed presentations should be approximately 30 minutes in length with time for questions to follow. Visual aids and handouts are encouraged. Selected presenters will receive 25% off workshop tuition and a complimentary room/board package during the retreat.

How to submit your proposal:

Applications are due by March 1st. Selected presenters will be notified by April 1.

Please provide a 1-2 page overview of your proposed presentation including the following information.

An outline or description of the prominent details on the project or curriculum (i.e.: What is the main content and goals? Where & when did it take place? Is it ongoing? Who were/are the participants? What is innovative about the content or approach? What were the successes? What did you learn? What might you change in the future?)

Include the following details:

- List any electronic features (slides, video, etc.), equipment needs, and set-up requirements.
- Will you provide handouts? If so, what will they include?
- If you have presented this content before, include where and when.
- Include a brief bio with relevant professional experience, education, artistic or educational accomplishments or awards.

Email proposals to Dani Thompson, Program Director: Dani@snowfarm-art.org

---

A note on our workshops: Snow Farm’s workshops have limited space. If you are set on attending a particular workshop during our Retreat, we recommend registering for the workshop early in order to secure your space. If you are then selected to present, the 25% discount can be applied retroactively, and any housing or meals purchased can be refunded.

The Art Retreat for Educators at Snow Farm is open to all who teach – elementary, secondary, and post-secondary school teachers, professors, and advisors; instructors or mentors in community-based centers; tutors or guides – and is appropriate for those who specialize in the arts as well as other disciplines. By bringing together a broad selection of educators, we hope participants will have the opportunity to make meaningful connections and learn from one another as you learn together.